THE SANCTUARY ARTISTS: The Nature of Art

July 13 - August 31, 2011

Attracted by the unspoiled beauty of the Goldsmith Schiffman Wildlife Sanctuary, individuals representing the visual arts, natural sciences, history, literary and oral traditions have joined creative forces. Since early 2009 they have explored and shared their creative responses inspired by Huntsville's newest green space. The result of their shared experiences and individual journeys are combined in this first exhibition, The Art of Nature.

Their ongoing collaboration is meant to inspire, raise public awareness and appreciation of the Sanctuary, and all natural places where the Earth's wildlife, plants and natural resources are treated with reverence. For these kindred spirits, a shared vision continues to unfold. More information about upcoming venues for The Art of Nature exhibition and other group activities can be found at the sanctuary artist website: <http://www.sanctuaryartists.net/> including links to these individual artists websites.
